Re: Maryland Democratic Primary Poll Findings

Dem. Candidate Angela Alsobrooks holds a 5-point lead: A new poll by Concord Public Opinion Partners sponsored by Education Reform Now Advocacy (ERNA) shows Democratic candidate Angela Alsobrook leading against David Trone. In this poll of n=460 registered voters, 39 percent said If the election were today, they would vote for Democrat Angela Alsobrooks. David Trone holds 34 percent of the vote, with 27 percent still undecided or voting for another candidate.

And, if the Democratic primary were today, whom would you vote for?

This Concord Public Opinion Partners poll was conducted between May 2nd-9th, 2024 . The sample consisted of n=460 registered voters, with a credibility interval, similar to a poll's margin of error of +/- 4.52 percentage points. The data sets were weighted by gender, age, race and Congressional District. Data was collected by contacting voters selected from a Maryland registered voter file, via live calls to cell phones and landlines in addition to SMS text surveys.
